Tragedy at Leth- bridge on Saturday afternoon

Couple were former residents of Bow Island he was a partner in a Store by the name of "Watterson and Colpe"

What was a premeditated murder and outside took place at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon when James Garfield Watterson entered suite "C" in the Kirkham block and deliberately shot and killed his wife, who with her two children, were staying there with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, and then turned the weapon on himself with fatal results. The dead man was in the employ of the Massey-Harris Co. Calgary, as traveller, and previously had been living in Pincher Creek, working in a lumber yard.

Domestic differences and extreme jealousy on the part of the husband appear to have been the cause of the tragedy. His wife had left him last December, with her two girls of the marriage, seven and five years of age, and had come to live in Lethbridge. About a month ago the dead man was fined $20 for assaulting the woman and, according to a statement made by her, he had shot at her at Pincher Creek, the bullet missing her by about three inches. On that occasion she forgave him.

The deceased man had endeavored to see his wife at about 11 on Saturday but was prevented from doing so, by Mr. Smith. He then, it appears, went to a local hardware store and purchased the revolver, a .32 with six chambers known as a "Police Pistol." Entering the suite, he fired at his wife, who was at the time ironing a silk blouse. One of the bullets entered the left eye and another the left of the mouth. There was also a bullet wound in her hand, which she had evidently put up to her eye on seeing the gun aimed at her. Another bullet was found embedded in the wall of the apartment, and it would seem that now that we are entered the scene of the murder through the mouth when he turned the gun on himself. All chambers of the gun were empty. Death in both cases appears to have been instantaneous. Mrs. Smith at the time of the tragedy, was scrubbing the floor of the kitchen where it took place, but she rushed out immediately the firing started. In a letter found on the deceased man, addressed "To Whom it May Concern," he mentioned that he intended to commit the deed.

He had met his elder girl in the street about 11, had tendered her an ice cream, and had kissed and wished her good-bye. The girl was not present when the tragedy took place, and the younger child was at the time at Bow Island, staying with her grandmother Mrs. Smith.

The dead couple had been married 10 years. The wife at the time of her marriage was 16 years old.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Loretta Watterson took place on Tuesday August 3rd, at 3 p.m. from the residence of her mother Mrs. B.A. Smith.

The Review especially extends its deepest sympathy to the mother Mrs. B.A. Smith in her great loss.

Farmer! lately in the Bow Island Review we had the Politicians' opinion of the Farmers, who belongs to no Union, how he is the refuge of the "party leaders" the only man (?) who lets others run his business the "good old party way."

Surely none of us Farmers have backbone so flabby that we need some one to hold us up straight and if the time comes we will do as this old English Farmer intends doing just as soon as he gets the chance of casting his vote.

For casting my vote with the Farmers, Not cast! not any way s'y!

I've had my fill of Old Parties, An' this is the reason w'y;

They've had their chance with the country, Some forty odd year or so,

An' who is to blame that they wasted our time, An' we only the tariff to show?

Now I ain't no 'and fer complainin' But, blame me, it gives me a pine To 'ear of reforms at dou' appear.

Then we 'ave 'em go 'agin agin, Sometimes I've thought them in earnest,

As I voted the ticket, y'a know, But I'm 'pollin' you, folk, it's a serious joke.

When they've only the tariff to show. The tariff, so greedy an' mighty!

The tariff, so giv' an' 'despised! I think I'll go back to old Blighy, Unless the 'igh tariff's revised.

Promises simply mean nothin' They've feeded us with kisses the'y 'dare.

still plain! their best to 'taller their nest, An' boostin' the tariff, you know.

I was young when I first struck the country, I hardly knew where to begin;

The men of the day spoke so grandly, But, Lord, they were clever as sin! I kept me guessin' an' jumpin'.

To know which to vote or to not, But I'm thinkin' as 'ow they 'ave played their ad' now.

An' I'm through with the whole bloomin' lot. I'm castin' my vote with the Farmers, While still a free vote I've got; I'm through with the old politicians, Their patriotism is rot!

Gold-crazed an' 'aughty's their trouble They've worked every graft that they know.

Now they'll sing their self-praise, in the pre-election days But the greedy old Crafters must go!

Trucks in Western Provinces

Value of the Truck in Hauling Grain To Market

In the western provinces of Canada the farmers are all future truck-buyers. Many of these farmers are situated at from ten to sixty miles from the railroads. The estimated cost of hauling grain is .03 per bushel per mile.

A good team of horses will haul 75 bushels at a speed of 2 1/2 miles per hour.

A two-ton truck will haul 80 bushels in a 20-mile trip in two hours and return in two hours, making two trips per day over good roads.

At a recent meeting of the Grain Growers in Saskatchewan, when this fact was pointed out to them, many got busy with pencil and paper and soon figured out where they could save the price of a truck in one season.

incorporation of the "Bank of Albermonton and at Calgary.

Seed Growing in B. C.

The United Seed Growers at Pen-cotton, B.C., expect to seed 300 acres for vegetable seeds this year and 100 acres for sugar beet seed production in 1921. This district, and in fact, the whole province, has made enormous strides in the growing of fine seed.

In Thibet the people salute their superiors by taking off their hats and kneeling out their tongues three

Atrocity Stories are Revived

To Create Prejudice Against Lloyd George's Policy of Soviet Negotiation

London.—The resumption of hostilities between the Poles and Bolsheviki coincides with the opening of the Norfolk newspaper campaign, plainly intended to create prejudice against Lloyd George's policy of negotiation with soviet Russia. The news demands a leading article to revival of the atrocity stories and comments on the case of the Reverend and North, a British Chaplain in Moscow, returned from the soviet arrest is reported on a charge of betrayal associated with the British secret service. The Times states that the true reason for his detention is that Lentine fears the effect on the outside world of North's evidence respecting the real conditions existing under sovietism.

Northcliffe's organ accepts as truthful the assertion that "Lord Lan-bury, the British Socialist, was carefully shepherded during his recent visit to Moscow. The city, it is declared, was specially lighted, the British prisoners were provided with better food. All workmen had strict order to behave in circumspect manner. After Landbury's departure, the soviet played into its usual chaps. The Times predicts that the British labor delegation, which left for Russia this morning, will be similarly guarded and shown only the best of the Bolshevik city. It is the only living Englishman allowed to give a true account of the soviet atrocities, and hence his arrest.

Wonders of Wireless

But Mars Declines to Talk to This Planet

The message from Mars, for which Dr. Frederick H. Miller, noted astronomer in wireless, searched interstellar space from his giant receiving plant near Omaha, Nebraska, did not materialize. If there were such a message passing through the ether for the fifty millions of miles that separates the earth and Mars it did not come sufficiently close to the earth to be picked up by the great receiving station at Millers. Mars has established on the banks of the Platte River.

For nine hours Dr. Miller and his assistant, L. H. Gamor, searched space for the signals which Mars is thought to be sending earthward.
The first half of the night the wireless instruments were badly interfered with by static. Through the delicate receiving instruments came the crackling of lightning and other electric sounds to such an extent that no signals anywhere could be received.

The receiver was gradually tuned to its full length of wave. Starting at a short wave, its capacity was gradually increased. As its range increased the world's wireless business was picked up.

First a school station in Kansas was talking. Next Hawaii was picked up, then San Francisco. Then Mexico was heard calling the city of Mexico. Again a station in the Gulf of Venezuela sent a message to Madrid, then Valparaiso talked with London.

Through and past all these zones, Dr. Miller tuned his receiver until all sounds had ceased. He was in the infinite. Back and forth his apparatus flashed, his range increased, he was running the gamut from 16,000 to 300, 000 and more. But not a sound came over the waves after the earth zone was past.

The scientists kept this up until daylight. Then Dr. Miller said the wireless instruments were out of order.

"The early part of the evening we were troubled with heavy static, so that it was impossible to hear anything except static from South America, Europe and the United States.
During the latter hours of the night, when the wireless was stretched to its fullest extent to hear inter-planetary communication, we heard noise that could be construed as a message from Mars."

Bulletin on Bee-Keeping

Published by the Manitoba Department of Agriculture

At present a great many people in Western Canada are enquiring as to where they can purchase bees, declaring their desire to take up the beekeeping industry. To assist all who desire to take up bee-keeping in Manitoba, the Manitoba Department of Agriculture has published a new 24-page illustrated bulletin entitled "Beekeeping in Manitoba." This bulletin is written by Mr. Muckle, B.S.A., special lecturer in beekeeping, who has many years experience in bee-keeping in Manitoba, and has had a wide opportunity, in connection with his departmental activities, of observing the beekeeping possibilities of all parts of the province. A free copy of the bulletin may be had on application to the Publications Branch, Manitoba Department of Agriculture,

High Prices Are Result of the War

Declaration on Economic Conditions That Present Situation Is Not Abnormal

The disorganization of the whole economic position of Europe due to the war is reflected in the prices of prices which is at present the source of universal discontent among the people, belittled and neutral alike, says a declaration on the economic conditions of the world, approved by the supreme council on March 8, and issued in the house of commons.

"High prices are the inevitable result of war," the declaration states, "in comparison with most wars, the present situation is far from abnormal. In the Napoleonic wars, the prices in England rose 75 percent and in eight years to become normal."

"In the American civil war prices rose 100 percent and took twelve years to become normal."

Service was held in the Westfield School-house last Sunday evening. Mr. Jacobson was the speaker. It was a pleasure to see so many out and also a pleasure to hear Mr. Jacobson. Our evening services have been well attended, there being a full house every night.
